THE PRIDE'S GOOD RACE.

A large and enthusiastic gathering went out to Harlem yesterday, attracted to the course by a cracking good card of seven races. The weather was balmy and pleasant, the track fast and everything chimed in to make the afternoon's sport one long to be remembered. It is estimated that nearly ten thousand persons passed through the turnstiles.

The feature event of the day, the Austin Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward one and one-sixteenth miles with $1,500 added, was taken by Tom Ryan's The Pride which won in an impressive fashion, fairly running away from his field. Star Chamber is out of form and put up another of his dull performances and was never a factor at any part of the race. To a fair start The Pride at once assumed an easy command leading at the half by two lengths, with Silurian second a length and a half in front of Serrano with Lady Strathmore fourth. There was little change in these positions up to the last eighth with the exception that Serrano fell away beaten just before reaching the stretch entry. The Pride was so rank throughout the entire journey that Dominick could hardly hold him and he won pulled up almost to a walk by three lengths. Lady Strathmore closed on Silurian fast in the last sixteenth and beat him out by a half length for second position. The others were virtually beaten off and were never in the hunt from flag dip to finish.

Six Shooter was dropped into an easy berth in the fifth race and had little trouble in scoring. He laid in fourth position within hailing distance up to the homestretch, where Knight called upon him and he ran away from his field as if the others were tied, winning by six lengths. Henry Burt, which had led up to the last sixteenth, was second, a length before Charley Moore. Henry Burt showed gameness in the last hundred yards, something he was not supposed to be possessed with. Charley Moore ran a much improved race and is ready to win when placed right. Rollick was right there up to a sixteenth out.

Constellator had little trouble in the sixth race in double shooting the game for Tom Ryan, going into the lead soon after the first half had been run and easily remaining there to the end. He won by two lengths from Evelyn Byrd, which finished about the same distance in front of Hermencia. The last named appeared to have a chance for second place in the last sixteenth, but tired badly in the closing strides. Van Hoorebeke as usual died away when the pinch came. Alaska was beaten off all the way.

The day's opener was taken by Andes, which has long been overdue for a bracket. His victory was somewhat in the nature of a lucky one, Likeness being badly pinched out of the race for a spell just after passing beyond the first quarter, and in making up the lost ground it took much of her speed and she had nothing left to finish with. To a good start Andes jumped into the lead closely followed by Master Mariner and Natural Gas. The first two ran necks apart up to a furlong out where Master Mariner fell away beaten. Along in here Likeness moved up fast on the inside rail, but Andes had her shut in, and to make matters worse Hicks rode a poor finish, and Andes finally won by a length with Likeness two and a half in front of Rosa Diab, which ran in improved form and finished strongly. Pupil, well up to the last eighth, tired perceptibly from there in. If You Dare had no chance from where he got off. Lonsille Bramble showed speed and altogether ran a good race.

The second race a dash of four and a half furlongs for two year olds was marred to a great extent by the start, Magi the winner getting a flying advantage of almost two lengths. Benefited by this send off she fairly ran away from her field winning in a canter by four lengths. The fight for second place was a hot one, Mabel Winn just lasting long enough to get the verdict by a neck on the post from Hoodwink. Mollie T. showed a good turn of speed for nearly a half mile.

Miss Bennett stepped off six furlongs in the third race in 1:12½, which is the fastest time made hereabouts this year. To do this, however, she was driven out to the last ounce and only won by virtue of a stronger ride than that put up on Burnie Bunton. Had Ransom been able to help the latter in the closing strides she surely must have won. To a good start Miss Bennett darted into the lead at once, holding an advantage of a length and a half over Burnie Bunton at the first quarter and increasing it to two just before entering the final quarter. Along in here Burnie Bunton moved up fast and nailed her just after straightening for home. Burnie Bunton had Miss Bennett beaten at the last sixteenth, but Dominick would not be denied, and going to work with all the strength he could summon fairly lifted the daughter of Russell under the wire by a nose. It was a clear case of a jockey's victory, Ransom showing to poor advantage in the closing strides. Sam Fullen finished third, eight lengths away. Harry Herendeen ran well for about a half. Theory's race was not up to her mark and should be thrown aside in future calculations. She showed but little speed at any part of the race and was badly outrun for the entire journey. Elsie Kuhn showed quite a turn of speed in the first part of the race.

The finale brought sixteen horses to the post. Haviland, on his good run to Evelyn Byrd the day before, being made a decided favorite. He should have won but was almost thrown down by Frank Ireland at the first turn and lost ground thereby. He made up so much space thereafter that it took all the speed out of him and he had nothing left to stall off Chorus Boy's bid in the last fifty yards. The latter won by a neck on the post going away with Haviland the same distance before Kunja. Hub Prather seemed to have a chance when a sixteenth out but died away in the closing strides.

KINLOCH PARK.

In yesterday's issue of DAILY RACING FORM General Manager Joseph A. Murphy advertised the general conditions that will govern racing during the forthcoming meeting at Kinloch Park, which begins next Saturday, August 17, and will continue until September 14. It is hard to see how a more efficient and experienced staff of racing officials could have been selected. Mr. Murphy will be presiding judge, with Edward C. Hopper, secretary of the American Turf Congress as his associate. Capt. J. H. Rees will be chairman of the Board of Racing Stewards, assisted by Wilson P. Hunt and Charles McLaren, while our local starters, Dwyer and Holtman will alternate as flag wielders, John B. Dillon being clerk of the course. Such an equipment should be sufficient to inspire confidence and win the approval of the racing element in any community.

It is announced that the betting ring is open to all reputable bookmakers at the customary rate of $100 per day, and as bookmakers are protected by law in Missouri it seems a good opening for the knights of chalk and cham-

Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Bellario waited on Belle of Lexington to the stretch, where he passed her with ease and could have gone to the front at any time. Belle of Lexington put up a good, game race, but found the journey too far and was tiring at the end. His Eminence ran a grand race at the weights and was closing very strongly, and but for being pinned in on the rail in the last hundred yards, would have been second. Lucent ran fast and gamely and was going strongly at the end.

Went to post at 2:44. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Dr. Riddle broke running, displayed the most speed of the field and showed gameness when challenged in the stretch by Hammock. The latter ran well under a first-class ride, but the track was hardly heavy enough to suit him. Alfred Vargrave, badly messed about and allowed to fall out of the race on the back stretch, made up a lot of ground and was coming strongly at the finish. Eloim quit very badly after making a half. The others were far outclassed.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 30 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Goldsmith put up a remarkably fast and game race, but was very lucky to catch Blue Girl tiring right at the end, after she had disposed of Rossignol in the first three-eighths and set a terrific, fast pace. It is probable, too, that she was not fully keyed up, and the long delay at the post hurt her. Masterman liked the soft going and closed up well in the stretch. Rossignol raced with Blue Girl, which outclassed her, and quit at the end of three furlongs. Smart Set got off slowly and closed a big gap. Whiskey King and Stranger tired badly after being outrun.

Winner—B. c. by Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Blues showed remarkable pace and gameness. He got away luckily and waited on Dublin, which was running under a strong pull to the stretch, where they hooked up and ran like a team through the final quarter. Dublin on the inside was bumped and had the worst of it. Both were rapidly overhauled by the Parader, which lost several lengths at the start and closed a tremendous gap. He was going two feet to their one at the end, but failed to quite get up. Water Color disliked the deep going and was ridden badly under waiting tactics and choked to a standstill in the first half. The Rhymer and Chuctanunda both had worked fast trials, but made poor showing.

 Went to post at 2:30. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Andes was in great fettle and cut out the pace most of the way winning easily at the end. Likeneese was given a poor ride and was cut off badly just after passing beyond the first quarter. With any kind of racing luck she would have given the winner an argument. Winner—Br. m. by Chatham—Blue Vail.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Brown Vail was lucky to get through. She was pinned next to the rail all the way down the stretch and only found an opening fifty feet from the wire. As the race was run she was the best. Ollie J. had the race at her mercy if her rider had hugged the rail. She showed much speed but tired at the end. Onanetta was knocked about in the first half and went around his field but quit in the last sixteenth. Micou escaped interference and ran his race. Ellen Dale ran an improved race. Prince Zeno was in too many pockets. Midian came home on three legs.

Scratched—27354 Ep. 89.

Overweights—Ollie J., 2 pounds; Micou, 3; Ditty, 2; Virginia T., 4.

Winner—Ch. c. by Appomattox—Pernia.

Went to post at 2:55. At post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Red Apple had a close call. Rice took things easily on him and came near being nipped. Aaron, with better luck, would have won. He was cut off at the start and knocked into the fence at the three-quarters post and compelled to pull up. From there he took the overland route. Ruth Park beat the flag by two lengths, but was quickly passed. She, however, hung on gamely. Elbe was in several pockets, but had clear sailing in the stretch. St. David failed to run up to his work. Dousterswiv tired in the final sixteenth.

Red Apple, show, out. Aaron, show, out. Ruth Park, show, 3 to 1. St. David, show, out.

Winner B. c. by Escher—Clarissa.

Went to post at 3:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won all alone; second the same. George W. Jenkins was the only horse to remain on his feet. The others fell in regular order. Tate's Creek and Lord Farandole were remounted and ridden out for second and third money respectively. It was nip and tuck between Lord Farandole and Coley when the latter fell. Lord Farandole, however, was much the best and would probably have won easily.

No show betting.

Winner—B. m. by Inspector B.—Sun Maid.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Espionage, with a pull in the weights, was easily the best. She waited on Miss Soak and Frelinghuysen to the head of the stretch, when she drew away and was never extended. The pace also helped her. Miss Soak seemed to be falling out of it after the field was straight, but came again under punishment and caught Frelinghuysen right at the wire. The latter had no mishaps and was out by himself all the way. Tea Gown was forced to take the overland route and swung wide into the stretch. The last two were never contenders.

Scratched—(27297) The Boer, 107.

Espionage, show, out. Miss Soak, show, 7 to 10. Frelinghuysen, show, out. Tea Gown, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. c. by The Kaiser—Bettie Archer.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second the same. Enghurst was much the best and finished with his mouth wide open. He kept within striking distance until a mile and a quarter had been negotiated when he went to the front without urging. Bentley B. ran a good race. He made the running for more than a mile and raced Pacemaker into exhaustion. The latter showed all of his usual speed, but evidently the route was too far for him. Ceylon and Elyria were always out of it.

Overweights—Elyria, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Newton—Helen W.

Went to post at 4:50. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Newton W. showed much the most speed and was never in trouble. Elgiva evidently likes a route, as he came fast in the last sixteenth, nipping Sly Maid at the post. Rice put up a weak finish on the latter. Ernest Parham was outrun and had no mishaps. Dunsbro broke with his field, but sulked. He was pulled up in the backstretch.

Dr. Fannie was going fast at the wire and was rapidly overhauling the winner. Polly Bixby ran her usually consistent race. However, she was never dangerous, as Aurea held her safe all the way. Pretty Rosie had a stormy journey. He was shut off several times, but finished stoutly. Edna Gerry tired in the last sixteenth. Topmast showed speed for six furlongs, but tired badly in the stretch.

Scratched—27334 King Elkwood, 101.
